

Manly Mayhem

Issue No #1

The Latest news and Updates from PRAXIS 2

Gossip With Goykie

Turns out, there's a ton of things you don't know about Manly. So we interviewed our best, to spill the beans about Manly's hottest rumors.

Mr. Goykovic (but to protect his identity we'll call him Goykie), has cleared up the unknown mystery about the weird noises at night in the TAS Block and the truth about some funny (and savage) breakups.

Full Story on Pg.3

In This Issue

Gossip With Goyko
Swimming Stars
Dive into Zone
Carnival
Canteen Vs Camp
Food
Sink or Swim
And Many More!

Sink Or Swim?

This week in Monday's with Manly we investigated the auditions for Manly's 'The Little Mermaid Musical'. Auditions start on Monday 5th, Week 6. This year the musical will be held between June 26 - June 30 (dress rehearsal is June 25) according to School calendar. We have scored 2 exclusive interviews, River Fitzgerald (Year 7) being the first. Lets see how they went!

FULL STORY ON PG. 2

Shocking Scene Under School!

By Joel, Luke, Sam and Aiden

Last week we uncovered that there was a hidden nuclear wasteland under Manly Campus! Rats and cockroaches have been seen down in the “dumping ground” carrying deadly diseases. Teachers have had to wear hazmat suits while entering the area because of all the radioactive waves, rats and cockroaches. The rats have been a big problem at this school with them chewing through cables and coming up from their “holes” to eat some leftover lunch! The builders have been complaining about the rats and cockroaches causing havoc in their machines and stealing their food! The school has tried many different ways to clean up this infested dump under our school. In one attempt, Ms Spessot bravely ventured into the darkness to chop the filthy animals up with a machete and shoot them with a BB gun, as she has some experience in that area of expertise. But even that couldn't kill them! Some peoples conspiracy theories are that the radioactive waves mutated them into indestructible beasts that are plotting to take over the school. We interviewed an anonymous teacher, about the radioactive waves coming from underneath the school. They said that there is nothing down there and that it is not nuclear! They said that there was only electrical equipment but we believe that they are trying to hide something! Although we may never know what is down there, a lot of people back our belief about the nuclear wasteland under our school.

Sink or Swim

By Gemma, Jakson, Mel and Nick

This week in Monday's with Manly Ms Woodward: "I am excited, very we investigated the auditions for excited. Auditions are going to be Manly's 'The Little Mermaid Musical'. Auditions start on Monday 5th, are so many people auditioning. So Week 6. This year the musical will it will be a bit easier once we have those out of the way. Even though there is a lot of work to do I am very excited to work with the cast!"

Interviewer: "Who are you bringing in to direct this years musical?"

Ms Woodward: "Actually this year I am directing the musical!"

Interviewer: "Which role do you think will be the most intense to cast?"

Ms Woodward: "Well, Ariel is the main role and there are loads of people auditioning for that role, which is really cool, but because of this its going to make it very tricky to cast. There are loads of other roles which are for younger students all the way up to Year 12's."

Interviewer: "Who is making the costumes this year?"

Ms Woodward: "We have a wonderful group of parent volunteers, who are absolutely amazing!"

Interviewer: "How are you feeling about this years musical?"

Interviewer: "What role are you going to audition for?"

River: "I'm auditioning for Flounder and Sebastian. Honestly I don't mind which role I get."

I: "Why are you auditioning?"

R: "In Year 6 I was the main role for our school musical called 'Seusical the Musical'. I really enjoyed it so I want participate again this year."

I: "Are you nervous or excited?"

R: "Even though I am auditioning alone, I'm excited to work together with other people in the musical."

A special thanks to River for this amazing interview.

Our second exclusive interview with Ms Woodward, in the HSIE Staffroom, provided some useful inside information as well. Let's see how she's feeling about the 'The Little Mermaid Musical'!

Swimming Stars Dive Into Carnival

By Joel, Luke, Sam and Aidan

The MSC swimming carnival was a huge success. With everyone having a good time competing, swimming, eating or just hanging out with friends, it was a great day for everyone. This year's swimming carnival was situated at Andrew Boy Charlton Swim Centre and it was held on Friday the 9th of February from 10:00 to 2:30.

Aidan Hogan, a year seven student at MSC not only managed to make it to the zone carnival, but also was good enough to come first overall in the 13s boys competition. He said that he was "pumped to experience this feat that i've never had the chance to experience before". In the school carnival, Aidan competed in 50m freestyle, 50m breaststroke, 50m backstroke, 50m butterfly, 100m freestyle and also the 4x50m relay for his house, Hunter.

He made it to zone for 50m freestyle, 50m breaststroke and 4x50m relay. He along with his fellow students will/have go to zone on the 8th of March. This carnival is at the Warringah Aquatic Centre. For many of these students including Aidan, it will have been their first time in the zone carnival.

Aidan Hogan has kept his training routine every Thursday for one and a half hours. This extensive training has helped him reach his potential as a young swimmer. With this training it has turned him from a good swimmer to an incredible one.

When the 8th of March comes round again, let's share the Manly spirit with the public and support Aidan and our other peers in the zone carnival and let's show the world our Manly pride.

Gossip With Goykie

By Noah, Brandon, Ellie and Kaia

Turns out, there's a ton of things you don't know about Manly. So we interviewed our best, to spill the beans about Manly's hottest rumors.

Mr. Goykovic (but to protect his identity we'll call him Goykie), has cleared up the unknown mystery about the weird noises at night in the TAS Block and the truth about some funny (and savage) breakups. Goykie started by admitting to weird noises at the TAS Staffroom. He said he was hearing some creepy sounds coming from the room at night. To this, Noah said, "Like teachers being nice?" Goykie admitted to being savagely roasted. Next, Goykie told the full story about the English-TAS Teacher scandal. Many years ago, a teacher in the TAS Staffroom was having a secret, treacherous affair with a teacher in the English Staffroom. Fortunately, this story had a happy ending, and they ended up married.

When asked if he knew any funny breakups, Mr Goykovic stated "No breakups are funny- they are heart wrenching" suggesting that he may have been through one. He then quickly changed the subject, sharing secrets about the world's most rejected guy, Manly's very own. This guy would ask a girl out, and be accepted. So far, so good, right? But here comes the funny part. The guy, after a maximum of 2 days, would be dumped by the girl, who would use the classic line of "I just want to be friends". This guy had earned the nickname Friendzone for this happened to him by over 10 girls. Well That's all folks! If you know anymore spicy rumours, then get back to us with them. Continued on Pg. 4

Startling SRC's

By Gemma, Jackson, Mel, Nick

SRC Elections are soon to be coming up! Let's take a step inside the elections and see how our friends and classmates feel about the School Representative Council. Our interviewed classmates wish to be unnamed, we will respect their wishes in our interview;

In our interviews with two Year 7 classmates we got different views on the SRC elections. Both classmates are trying out for the SRC in 2018.

In our first interview our anonymous classmate was quite confident about her SRC ambitions. She quote on quote "Felt good!" And was most looking forward to helping the school and planning events. She feels like she can "Help contribute to our school"

In our second and final interview our anonymous classmate felt less confident than our first. In our conversation with them they stated; "I want to say that I want to help build our school community!". She also said that she has never had an opportunity like being in the SRC before.

Remember to apply for the SRC before it closes!

Gossip With Goykie (Savage Break-ups)

So that's all Goykie had on break-ups, but while we're on the topic, we'd like to introduce the top 5 most commonly used dump lines. If you have used one of these, you need to get a life.

regret accepting you as a relationship, I don't like you as much as I thought I did. But luckily, statistics show if you use this line you have a better chance of maintaining a healthy friendship with this person.

At 5, a new one, "YOU CHEATED ON ME!"

This one, unfortunately, has been used way too much. Top love advice hint: If you have cheated on your bae, they probably won't like you anymore. This line is usually delivered screamed, and ends 9 times out of 10 with a fight and a few injuries.

At 4, down 1, "I JUST WANT TO BE FRIENDS :-("

This one is normally delivered by text, and is followed by a broken-heart emoji by the other person. Studies have shown though, when people have used that line, they have not talked to each other again.

At 3, up 2 positions, "I DON'T THINK I'M READY FOR A RELATIONSHIP..."

The true meaning of this line is, "I

At 2, a previous number 1, "I'M NOT ALLOWED TO HAVE A BOY-FRIEND TILL I'M 18 AS MUM WANTS ME TO GET GOOD MARKS....."

This is followed by the other person glad you dumped them, and they can't believe they went out with such a nerd.

At Number 1, the most commonly used breakup line is.....

"IT'S NOT YOU, IT'S ME..."

This line is the ultimate breakup line. This is a line that makes you seem like you care when you really don't. The line, at its ultimate peak, means You were great, I liked you, but now I like your friends.

So that's all the breakup news. Tell us what you think, and if u had to use one of them! Tell us what happened, were interested in all.

VS

Canteen Vs Camp

Food

By Oscar Richard, Alisha, Genna

Invitation to all Manly Campus Families and Friends
Friday 23 March, 7-9pm
Freshwater Campus Gym
Gold coin donation entry - all proceeds go to the band program

Previously, year 7 went on an action-packed camp to Mangrove Mountain which was filled with thrilling activities and no nights of sleep. Amongst all of this endless amounts of fun there is of course the controversy of camp food. Which do you think is better camp or canteen food? Is the camp food disastrous or delicious? Our very own professional MSC interviewers decided to solve this mystery once and for all.

The activities were amazing but when it came to meals our spirits diminished immensely. For lunch on our first day, we were given hamburgers, but a unanimous vote declared that the meat patties were completely processed and the yellow circle of chicken was not what they called "chicken." The breakfast was absolutely horrible, and there was processed cheese and fake meat" accurately described a student in year 7, the students went through living hell. For dinner on the second day we were given chicken thigh with peas, baked potato, carrots and corn. Though this might seem delicious it was not. The majority of the whole meal was peas. Many kids greatly disliked the food and it did not help that the teachers were treated with delicious several course meals with fine dining.

On the other hand, at the canteen you can grab a quick, delicious lunch if you can't make your own or a snack if you're hungry. The canteen sells more popular lunch items such as satay sticks, nachos and BLT. And popular snacks such as spring rolls and zooper doopers.

When we asked a canteen volunteer, they said that their food would definitely be better. We asked students, and found that the majority agreed.

Not to mention the fact the canteen sells food for a very affordable price. We believe that when it comes to food we should leave it to the canteen. No one can argue that camp was a very enjoyable experience and definitely worth the many disadvantages that came with it.

Jokes and Gags!

Two Students are talking,
One says to the other:
“Hey the teacher said the exam will go on if it’s rain or shine!”
The other, demotivated one shakes his head and asks: “What makes that so good?”
“It’s snowing.”

Teacher: “Where is your homework today?”
Student: “I lost it fighting someone who said you weren’t the best teacher in school.”
Teacher: “...”

Why can’t Bikes stand on their own?
Because their always ‘two tired’!

Why are newspapers like toothbrushes?
Because everybody should have one of their own, and not borrow their neighbours’!

What is the witch’s favourite subject?
Spelling!

Friendzoned??

By Noah, Brandon, Ellie and Kaia

As we near Carnation day at Manly, there’s a growing throng of excitement in the air, with kids from across all year levels buzzing with anticipation. Though Carnation day is a ‘day of friendship’, there’s no way anyone wants to be the kid that gets no fuzzies. There’s sure to be some romance in the air on the day. But the question is; is anyone thinking about you?

In Love?

We all know Manly is known for the roses and romance. And we also know keeping a relationship going is tough. So, we decided to interview some of our best, for the best tips and tricks of the trade, to tell you how to get sparks flying; and how to keep them!. The first tip, Make time for them and compromise; try to go out once a fortnight

Got a Long distance relationship?

Keep your contact, either through texting or face to face meetings

Friendzoned?

We wouldn’t want any of our readers admitting their love to someone, only to get an awkward stare as a response. Though you may have feelings for someone, it’s important not to waste your time on someone who doesn’t feel the same way. And so, we’ve collected some of the best ways to know when you’re in the friend zone.

One, when they don’t give you nicknames. Two when they call you

‘bro’ or ‘buddy’. Three if they don’t respond to your texts, or don’t use emojis when texting you. And, four if they don’t sit close or listen to you
Its Over?

A toxic relationship is good for no one, and in that case, it’s better to say your through. But there’s a certain art to doing it, because we don’t want any chairs thrown.

Yeah, that’s right; these are the worst breakups Manly has seen.

The first, a break up through text, whilst she was in Thailand on a holiday. Second ther were tons of break ups on their birthday and Valentines Day. Third, a break up the day before year 12 formal. And finally a break up that ended in tears being shed and chairs flying.

Carnation Day is happening on the 15th of March at Manly Selective. It’s a day to celebrate friendship and love. On this day you don’t have to wear your school uniform. Instead you can wear anything red, pink or white. You can buy a carnation gift for your friends or girlfriend or boyfriend to show love or friendship. This year you can buy a Carnation (a beautiful flower) for $3, a teddy bear for $3, a lolly bracelet for $1.50 or a ‘warm and fuzzy’ for 50c which is a note that you can write in and it will be handed to your friend on Carnation Day. These are available to purchase outside the canteen at lunchtime.

Comics & Crosswords

Times Crossword 26,761

ACROSS

- 1 Moving restlessly from front of boat with fish (8)
- 5 Damned well after illness, containing second (6)
- 10 Before one's mass, hear about European form of religious instruction (9)
- 11 Reprimanded about learner, part of issue that needs raising (5)
- 12 Boundaries around English or French city (5)
- 13 Put away amount of money, as stated, for dance (9)
- 14 Devour gin, led astray — did consume too much (12)
- 19 For example, realists work hard in quietly greeting defeated team (12)
- 22 Some president, I calculate, is lacking any distinction (9)
- 25 Possibly brilliant change of direction (5)
- 26 Persistently pester last chap in undistinguished trio (5)
- 27 After short spell, keyboard player missing second drummer (9)
- 28 Craftsperson who ultimately puts black away? (6)
- 29 Wild animals in conflict with outfit protecting hospital (8)

DOWN

- 1 Choose an ancient character said to be old-fashioned rogue (8)
- 2 Frequently ring paper initially, then another (8)
- 3 The better he is, the less likely people will pick his work (9)
- 4 Quality of wine the writer's included — that's what we hear (5)
- 6 Like marginally unfinished book, yet to be censored (5)
- 7 Would-be partner having diamonds, perhaps, and gold (6)
- 8 Shake hand, finally, of less conventional type (6)
- 9 Runs, full of self-satisfaction, on reconstructed legs (8)
- 15 Fastidious as daughter about cutting flower (8)
- 16 Incidentally, it has an aptness as an anagram (2,7)
- 17 Leader from Mexico I'm lodging in Oregon otherwise (8)
- 18 A call for assistance installing finest building material (8)
- 20 Man on board British ship at sea hiding nothing (6)
- 21 Arcane splinter group holding on (6)
- 23 Herb's something with great healing power reportedly (5)
- 24 Line adding novel contribution to mathematical work (5)

Answers next year!